TALENTED UPSTART ANTHONY D’ORAZIO ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY FOR UNITED STATES HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Will run for the seat in the 25th Congressional District of New York as a Libertarian

East Rochester, NY – Anthony D’Orazio, has declared his intention to win the United States House of Representatives and is officially representing the Libertarian Party. He is a top candidate for the seat representing the 25th Congressional District in New York, currently held by Louise Slaughter.

“I am looking forward to an exciting campaign after talking with the great people of Monroe County. People are excited that a candidate will be representing their freedom and liberties on the ballot in November. They are ready for a new face that will represent them and their beliefs while upholding the Constitution of the United States.” D’Orazio said.

“The best government is that which governs least.” – Thomas Jefferson. As a Libertarian, Tony will be seeking to uphold libertarian values, such as those of Liberty and the Constitution. Tony believes in limiting government, lowering taxes and improving the economy through the free market. Most of all, Tony plans to represent his constituency in Congress and connect with each member of the district through his grassroots campaign.

The Greater Rochester Libertarian Party has endorsed Tony, who plans to campaign vigorously between now and Election Day, which is November 8th. “We’re going to start a grassroots movement and spread rapidly throughout the 25th. We’re planning to win this election, to give the seat of the 25th back to the people, and we need everyone’s help to do it.” Tony said after accepting the endorsement.
